

PHYLLIS GEBAUER SCHOLARSHIP IN WRITING, 2018-2019

The Phyllis Gebauer Scholarship in Writing seeks to acknowledge and foster the talent of promising writers from diverse backgrounds and cultures who might otherwise not have the opportunity to study their craft in a supportive educational environment. Phyllis Gebauer, a beloved Writers' Program instructor who began teaching in 1994, was passionate about providing learning opportunities for those who lack access. When she passed away in 2011, she left the Writers' Program a generous gift with which to fund this needs-based scholarship program. Up to six scholars are named annually, and each of the six recipients is given the opportunity to enroll in three full-length Writers' Program courses during a one-year period (mentorships, master classes, Writers Studio workshops, and 20-week courses are excluded). Courses may be taken either onsite or online but cannot be deferred for any reason.

ELIGIBILITY

In order to be considered eligible for the Phyllis Gebauer Scholarship in Writing, applicants must:

- Have a gross income not to exceed $2,500 a month per individual. For households with more than one individual, add 10% for each additional person.
